Kings Road Bulletin

Term	Autumn 1	Date	21st – 27th Sept

Information

- Come along to our informal 'Miss Hodges' Tea Party' on Thursday 1st October at 2pm! This is a relaxed opportunity to meet members of our school team, enjoy a coffee and some cake, and find out more about the support available to you and your children at Kings Road. We believe that when families and school work together, our children thrive. We want to build strong, positive relationships with our families so that we can listen to your views, understand what you need and work together to give your children the very best support. Following your questionnaire, we know that afternoon sessions are more convenient for many families, and that having something for younger children to do makes it easier to attend. So, our wonderful Mrs Butt will be there with books, toys and games to keep babies and toddlers entertained. We'd love to see you there — no appointment needed, just come along and say hello!
- On 28th September, Lindsay Galvin is coming to Kings Road to launch her new book, Cleopatra's Amulet. This will be for children in Y4, Y5 and Y6. Y5 are reading her book about dragons currently in Mrs Bettles' lessons. Following, is the link to some of her previous books:

  On the 28th Lindsay will be signing books for those who pre-order them. If you would like to buy one, please click the link HERE and pay online.

- Poetry Competition – Ages 5–12. We are excited to announce our upcoming Poetry Competition (This is me acrostics and A world of wonder), open to children aged 5–12 years old. Your child's teacher will have a planning sheet that children can use to help guide and support them in creating their very own poem. We would love to encourage as many children as possible to take part in this fantastic extracurricular activity. Previously, we have been delighted to receive a beautiful glass trophy for our entries, and the work of all previous winners has been proudly published in special hardback books. This is a wonderful opportunity for children to be creative, express themselves and see their writing celebrated. We hope you will encourage your child to get involved and let their imagination shine!
- It has been brought to my attention that some parents have ticked the Mr Morgan's Award Sheet without the children actually completing the tasks. To be honest I am astonished at this abuse of such a positive strategy. There are many and very obvious reasons why this is a poor idea, including role-modelling dishonesty and laziness. Without completing the tasks, the medal really is a virtually worthless piece of metal.

Toilet Training

Toilet training is an important milestone in your child's development. We understand that all children develop at their own pace, but research shows it's best for your child's bowel and bladder health to stop using nappies, including reusable nappies, pull-ups and training pants, between 18 and 30 months. The only exception should be children with a diagnosed medical need, such as a bladder or bowel condition.

Being out of nappies not only helps children to feel confident, healthy and part of the group, it also means teachers can spend more time teaching and supporting children's development in other ways.
At Kings Road, we can support you when you are training your child at home. Please chat to us if you have any concerns about this and we can signpost you to support from other agencies.
