

We will be writers when we –

- write Instructions on Temple Run (game based in a Mayan ruin)
- write an adventure story based in a Mayan ruin 'cenotes' (Indian Jones)
- write a persuasive letter on Fair Trade
- write and perform an advert

We will be linguists when we –

- review conversation questions and answers in French
- Write a poem using French colours and

We will be historians when we –

- discover the Ancient Mayas and how they lived
- learn about the House of Wisdom
- Investigate the purpose of the Silk Road will be scientist when we -

- Learn about Animals, including humans
- can identify and name the main parts of the human circulatory system, and describe the functions of the heart, blood vessels and blood
- I can recognise the impact of diet, exercise, drugs and lifestyle on the way their bodies function
- can describe the ways in which nutrients and water are transported within animals, including humans.

We will be sports people when we –

- investigate heartrate and exercise
- play the historical game of Tok-a-pok

Ignite

An explosion of learning across the curriculum

We will be geographers when we –

- locate where the Maya people lived and discover the ancient names for their sites.
- find out whether these sites still exist now.
- discuss global warming is having an impact on the cocoa crops.
- know the countries along the Silk Road and be able to identify them on a map.
- be able to visualise and sketch the original city of Baghdad .

We will be musicians when we –

- listen to Ancient Mayan music and try to recreate.

Spark- The ideas of Giants!

Can we see the ideas of giants in the past today?

Intellectual Islamics v's Magical Mayans.

Year 6
Term - Summer

We will be mathematicians when we –

TBC

We will be theologians when we will

- explore sacred places and discuss the importance of architecture across all religions

We will be artists and designers when we –

- design our own Mayan mask and necklace
- create an Islamic stain glass window design
- produce a mandala print using printing ink and polystyrene tiles

