Where Next?

Speaking more than one language increases your brain capacity and is an impressive achievement, giving you better and brighter options for your future! Spanish is the second most spoken language in the world.

Spanish GCSE is essential preparation for A-Level Spanish.

If you enjoy communicating with other people, finding out how languages work and learning about different cultures, studying a GCSE in one or more foreign languages is the choice for you! Studying foreign languages will also teach you some very valuable skills, such as the ability to communicate clearly, being a confident public speaker, thinking on your feet and problem solving. All these skills will give you the edge over other candidates.

Learning a language at GCSE is still highly regarded by universities, the world of work and it broadens the students' cultural understanding of the countries where the language is spoken.
