

A Coppice Orator

'Nest' their thoughts, so they know what they want to say before they speak.

Understands that there are different 'types' of talk and when to use them.

Values every voice (including their own.)

Listens intently to others so they know how to respond appropriately.

Speaks clearly and confidently for a range of purposes

Selects the right vocabulary for the right curriculum