

YEAR 4 AUTUMN TERM

PIGS

English/History - Writing

GOAL: To write a story: Retelling a Roman Myth

Tuesday 8th December

Text Structure:

P1 The beginning

P2 The build up

P3 The dilemma

P4 The resolution/ending

The brothers are offered the crown of Alba Longa, but they refuse it as they want to found their own city.

The brothers set off to find somewhere to build their city.

They argue about how to interpret the sign sent by the gods and cannot resolve their disagreement.

They end up in a fight.

Romulus kills his brother in the fight.

Romulus has the city of Rome built.

Features to include:

☒ Time Fronted Adverbial

☒ Place Fronted Adverbial

☒ Manner Fronted Adverbial

☒ 2A sentence

☒ Simile sentence

☒ Direct Speech

☒ Capital Letters

☒ Full stops

☒ Comma after fronted adverbial

☒ Inverted commas

Peer Assessment:

By R. Ruben

Well done you have included

2A sentence

NS: To use Time and Manner fronted adverbials

one ^{upon} ~~any~~ time there were 2 ~~broa~~ twins and they were offered a crown and be conjoined twins but they refused. The 2 twins wanted to build there own city. Remus was as tall as a Roman staff. He had black, curly hair and a short, wavy beard. His eyes, which were the colour of lava, Remus was as tall as a Roman staff, could really glare at you. He had bared, muscly arms. He wore a bright, orange tunic with uncorny, brown sandals. His goat, which were swoty from the hot sun, and ~~sun~~ sun beart. Remus was as rude as a lama and also very stubborn. ~~Romulus~~ Remus was as tall as an olive tree.

Romulus was as tall as an olive tree. He has dark, silky hair and a stylish, guby beard. His eyes, which were the colour of stone could really glare at you. He had strong, muscylar arms. Romulus wore a mag magenta tunic with brown leather sandals. His gut, which smelt very strong, was very moist. He was as brave as a bear and as fearless as a eagle.

So Romulus and Remus found a spot to build there city. The glowing, warm sun beamed down and created a crazy, strong ~~str~~ heat. In the distance, in the distance, the twins saw the clear, wavy river with a light, blue bruch. Right in front of the twins, there was a tall, green ~~tr~~ tree. The glours which smelt wonderful ~~to~~ like a rainbow. The loud, meddalcic birds scwelled. The rawing, river sounded like a waly laying on the ground. I can't believe it yelled Romulus: "Palatine hill is where we should build the city, it is the tallest and flattest hill", yelled Romulus. ~~I disagree~~ Romulus, Aventine hill is more suitable as it is nearer to the ~~water~~ river, replied Remus.

PIGS

English/History - Writing

GOAL: To write a descriptive letter from a Roman Soldier about life at Hadrian's Wall.

Wednesday 14th November

Text Structure:

Paragraph 1

Paragraph 2

Paragraph 3

Paragraph 4

Where I am

What the weather is like

What the local people are like

What Hadrian's wall is like

What the barracks are like

What I eat

Where I wash and go to the toilet

What I have to do

Concluding paragraph- personal comments.

Features to include:

☒ Time Fronted Adverbial

☒ Place Fronted Adverbial

☒ Manner Fronted Adverbial

☒ 2A sentence

☒ Simile sentence

☒ Adjectives

☒ Capital Letters

☒ Full stops

☒ Comma after fronted adverbial

Peer Assessment:

By Dillon

Well done you have included

2A sentence

NS: To use time, Fronted adverbial, Place, Fronted adverbial

Dear vichya,

I'm Sorry it has been a while since my last letter, I have been very busy. For six months, now, I have been here at vandelonia fort at Hadrian's wall. All winter, it has been rain rain and more rain. Last week, one of the Barbarians Staped out of line and got there head chopped off by the Romans. Shockingly, the locals are god up and angry paing there taxes.

Impressively, Hadrian's wall is 4.5m tall. Impressively, the wall is very wide and tall. The strong, sturdy wall has grey, stoney which milecastles which can house up to 64 PEOPLE/ soldiers.

Uncornstably, the barracks are very small and crowded. Inside the barake, are many rooms with uncornstably bunk beds. Every day, we have 1 pound of meat / pork. When we are garding the wall, we eat the Rock hard Biscuits. Surprisingly, the toilets are made from wood. Every morning, we always wash ^{our} ourselves.

For months now, I have really missed you dad and aspesnaly Ro/Robyn In the heavy, suprising parcel I was delighted to recive the guby, red apples.

Love of Lots
Som

PIGS

English/History

GOAL: To edit my descriptive letter. (Whole Class Feedback)

Monday 23rd November

Spellings to practise:

here: here here here Be here here here here here here here here

which: which which which which which which which which just: just just just just just just just just just just guard: guard guard guard guard guard guard guard guard

Synonyms to improve the adjectives:

big: large, giant

tall: long, wide, loby, towering nice: magical, scenic, kind, fantastic

Punctuation:

Read through your letter and check that there is a comma after every fronted adverbial.

My edited paragraph

As an auxiliary soldier, it is our job to guard the wall night and day. We have to be as brave as a Roman Empire and as powerful as Electricity. The rude, mean Barbarians can be good friend fighters. Out of nowhere, they can suddenly fight better. attack us with swords.

Include:

2A sentence

Simile sentence