

We're
here
to help

ATTENDANCE SUPPORT FOR PARENTS

When attendance becomes difficult, support is available

Every child deserves to feel safe, supported and successful in education.

If your child is struggling to attend school because of anxiety, emotional wellbeing, SEND needs, health concerns or family circumstances, there are a range of organisations that can help.

Speak to:

- Tutor
- Head of House
- Pastoral Leader
- Attendance Team

1. SCHOOL ATTENDANCE & SEND SUPPORT

Devon Information Advice and Support (DIAS)

Independent SEND advice and guidance for families. Including support for SEND concerns, EHCP advice, school attendance difficulties and Emotionally Based School Non-Attendance (EBSA/EBSNA).

www.devonias.org.uk

ADHD UK – Right to Choose

Information about ADHD assessments and NHS Right to Choose pathways.

www.adhduk.co.uk/right-to-choose

2. MENTAL HEALTH & EMOTIONAL WELLBEING

Kooth

Free, confidential online mental health support for young people.

www.kooth.com

Young Minds

Advice for parents supporting children with anxiety, wellbeing and mental health.

www.youngminds.org.uk

Health for Teens – Devon

Information about emotional wellbeing, stress, relationships and healthy lifestyles.

www.healthforteens.co.uk/devon

NHS – Talk to Your Teenager

Advice for starting conversations and supporting young people through challenges.

www.nhs.uk

3. COMMUNITY & YOUTH SUPPORT

SPACE Youth Services

Professional youth work, mentoring and community support for young people.

www.spacepsm.org

Young Devon

Helping young people build confidence, resilience and independence.

www.youngdevon.org

YMCA Exeter

Support and advice for young people and families.

www.ymcaexeter.org.uk/help-and-advice

A lifeline for young carers

Sidekick

A confidential text service for young carers.

sidekick.actionforchildren.org.uk

4. FAMILY & PARENT SUPPORT

The Solihull Approach

Free parenting courses and guidance from birth to adulthood.

Access Code: TAMAR

www.inourplace.co.uk

Dad's House

Support and information for fathers following separation or bereavement.

www.dadshouse.org.uk

Citizens Advice

Independent advice on finances, benefits, housing and family matters.

www.citizensadvice.org.uk

5. HEALTH & WELLBEING

Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children

GOSH – Eczema Support

Information on symptoms, treatment and support.

www.gosh.nhs.uk

Barnardos

Barnardos

Support for children, young people and families.

www.barnardos.org.uk

HOW KEVICC CAN HELP

- ✓ Attendance Support Plans
- ✓ Graduated Reintegration Programmes
- ✓ Emotional Wellbeing Support
- ✓ SEND & Inclusion Support
- ✓ Early Help Referrals
- ✓ Family Meetings & Multi-Agency Support
- ✓ Pastoral Support

You are not alone

NEED HELP?

Email: studentabsences@kingedwardvi.org.uk

Please get in touch early – the sooner we work together, the better we can support your child.

KIND
We are caring, compassionate.

INCLUSIVE
We value every and celebrate successful education.

OUR VALUES

COMPREHENSIVE
We provide a rich, education for all, beyond the classroom.

COMMITTED TO THE BEST
We strive for excellence in everything we do.