Headteacher's Message

It has been such an eventful week for our children; the memories they will have made will last a lifetime. Firstly, I want to thank the police for sparing time to come in and allow the children in Reception to learn all about their work. I'm sure our neighbours won't thank us, but allowing all 60 children to have a go on the siren is the bit I am sure they all enjoyed the most!

I spent Wednesday up at Marrick with our Year 6 children on their residential. I make a point of asking the adults our children meet about the impression they make; the answer this year was impressive. The lady in the ice cream shop even rated them as the most polite she had ever served! On our walk back to Reeth, we stopped to sit by the river and enjoy the sights and sounds of nature. The children were silent, taking in their surroundings. Mr Brassil then shared with them a poem about the swifts that were flying around us:

*Suddenly flickering in sky summit, three or four together,
Gnat-whisp frail, and hover-searching, and listening.
They've made it again,
Which means the Globe's still working
Our planet still waking refreshed,
Our summers still all to come.
Veer on the hard air,
With their leaden velocity and their butterfly lightness
Power thrust to left, then to right, then a flicker
Tilt into a slide, then a lashing down disappearance.
For all our summers still to come
For all our summers still to come*

The children were massively impressed when Mr Brassil told them he managed to write it whilst walking down the river bank. We won't tell them Ted Hughes may have had a helping hand.

Thank you for your support.

Flipping Out

Jasper's letter to Flip Out impressed them so much that not only did they provide a £50 voucher for our Summer Fair, but they actually came in for a visit! Ninja Kid came in to meet Jasper and spoke to our children in assembly.

Children will need to wear suitable clothing and footwear for the typical English weather as well bringing a packed lunch and water bottle!!
