Harvest begins at home

My shopping bill has gone up and if we are to believe the headlines, food prices will continue to increase and support for families from Belvoirdale and Coalville foodbanks has also increased. Belvoirdale is proud to support our friends in every way we can and so will the Coalville foodbank, Marlene Reid Centre and The Community Fridge. There is no better way in which the Belvoirdale and wider community of Coalville, demonstrates its compassion and kindness towards others, than when donating to the Harvest appeal. The generosity shown, epitomises the Belvoirdale Characteristics and demonstrates how kind our community is. Therefore, please donate whatever you can to our traditional harvest table in the entrance hall and set the perfect example to our children and future generations that kindness is never wasted. Mr Dax

Envelopes, bean bags and hoops

I enjoy writing and leading school assemblies because it allows me to speak to the children directly about issues that arise in school or the wider world each day. These issues are underpinned by our Life Skills Learning that explores personal growth (see website curriculum). Last week we discussed the act of sharing after boys in the KS2 playground became upset because lunchtime equipment wasn't being shared; "It's my ball/hoop/bean bag" was the common remark. The assembly was also inspired by the selfish and ignorant behaviour of the protesters in Portsmouth against the RNLI volunteers (Heroes). I placed four envelopes on a table. 2p, 10p, sweets and empty was written on each envelope. I turned my back and invited four children to take an envelope. One child took the 2p as it "was the least," another child took the empty envelope because he wanted "someone else to have the money or sweets." These acts of unselfish behaviour are the characteristics that make a healthy community and are the qualities that I want to see in my school.

Mr. Dax

Thanks and ever thanks

Poppie and her mum, Charlotte, showed their kindness last week when they gave me a very special collection of Shakespeare plays. These beautiful books are over 100 years old and have been in the family for generations. Poppie said that "Mr. Dax would enjoy them." Well he certainly does Poppie, and they have found an equally loving and cherished home on my book shelf in my office. I can no other answer make but thanks, And thanks, and ever thanks; and oft good turns. Twelfth Night

Please come and join us for tea, coffee and cake as we raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support at 2pm on Friday 25th September. Please send in donations of cake to the school office.
