TO THE TRELEWIS PRIMARY COMMUNITY,

Diolch! Thank You!

As I prepare to say goodbye today, I find myself reflecting on a journey that began back in 2007 when I first walked through the doors at Trelewis Primary School as a student teacher (with far less wrinkles and a bit more hair!) and subsequently returning in 2011 as a class teacher. I could never have imagined then how deeply this school would shape me, both professionally and personally, and it has been the greatest privilege of my career to serve as Headteacher for the past ten years.

Trelewis has always been a special place – a school built on care, ambition, and a shared belief in what children can achieve. I am incredibly proud of how far we have come together and of the reputation we have built in Merthyr Tydfil. That success has never belonged to one person; it has always been a collective effort.

To our families and parents:- Thank you for your unwavering support, your trust, and your partnership. Your commitment to the school, your encouragement, and your belief in our vision have been vital in helping Trelewis grow and thrive. The strength of this community is one of the reasons the school stands where it does today, and I am deeply grateful for everything you have done.

To the staff:- You are the heart of the school. Your dedication, your hard work, and your willingness to embrace new ideas and pursue our shared vision have been nothing short of inspiring. I have been privileged to work alongside such talented, passionate professionals who always put children first. Thank you for trusting me, challenging me, and walking this journey with me.

To our amazing pupils:- You are the reason for everything we do. Your curiosity, kindness, humour, and determination have brought joy to every day I have spent here. Watching you grow, learn, and discover your potential has been the greatest reward of my career. Never stop believing in yourselves – keep reaching for the stars!

As I step aside, I do so with a full heart. I leave proud of what we have achieved together and confident that Trelewis will continue to flourish in the years ahead. This school will always hold a very special place in my life, and I will carry the memories, the relationships, and the lessons with me wherever I go.

Thank you for allowing me the privilege of being part of your community.

With warmest wishes,

Mr Morgan
