

Year 9 – Home Learning

End segregation now. In America during the 1950's and 60's, Black people were discriminated against which led to the Civil Rights movement. Discover what segregation meant, the challenges black people faced and how people defied the system and fought for their and other people's civil rights.

- Protest Poster Challenge

Task:

Design a peaceful protest poster.

Your poster must include:

- One short slogan (e.g. "Equal Rights for All")
- One picture or symbol
- One colour that stands out

- TV News Clip Task (Imagination)

Pretend you are a TV reporter in the 1960s.

Write or say (adult can help record):

- What is happening?
- Why are people protesting?
- Include – discrimination Black people were facing.

- VIP Research

Produce a picture with 3-4 sentences on important figures of the civil rights movement. The people could be-

- Martin Luther King
- Rosa Parks
- Ruby Bridges
- The Greensboro Four
- Malcolm X
