An Outstanding Example of Hard Work and Talent

The dedication, hard work and considerable talent of Belvoirdale children has been on display for all to see over the past week in the three outstanding performances of William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. Firstly at the Century Theatre on Friday, as the cast opened the Coalville Theatre Festival and this week at school in their evening performances. The children demonstrated the Belvoirdale characteristics of creativity and courage by learning poetic verse and acting so confidently in front of a variety of audiences. This introduction to the beauty of Shakespeare and the traditions of theatre, has created life long memories and a passion for performance, that one headteacher hopes will stay with them forever. Thank you to parents and colleagues who supported the production and who selflessly gave their time. Mr Dax.

Summer Reading Challenge & Events

The summer reading challenge is a simple and effective way to keep your child's brain active and ticking over during the summer break. It is a free challenge from libraries across the country and provides certificates and medals for children every time they read a book. A summer diary is another way to keep the brain working and Mr Dax always enjoys reading the diaries when the children return to school. Every diary will receive a certificate and a small gift. There are more ideas of summer activities on the letter that accompanies the pupil report, sent home on Monday 6th July. Mr. Dax

Last Newsletter & Thank You

2025-2026 has been a demanding year for everyone, in a country and a world of changing and challenging times. Communities always work better when people come together with the common goals of hard work, tolerance and Kindness. This is the daily challenge for teachers and families, as we encourage our children to find their own voices and work together without prejudice. I am proud to be the headteacher of this wonderful school, because we celebrate the children and the community of Coalville every day. We cannot do this without the dedication of the staff and the support of YOU; the PARENTS and CARERS. Thank you. Have a wonderful summer break and see you on TUESDAY 25th AUGUST to do it all over again. With love and thanks. Richard Dax-Headteacher.
