

The Knowledge of Kings

Subject Specific Vocabulary

|                                |  |
|--------------------------------|--|
| pacifist                | An individual who disagrees with war on principle.   |
| petition                | A formal written request or application, especially one signed by many people, to a particular individual or group, for example, a government. |
| positive discrimination | Discrimination in favour of individuals belonging to a group considered to be disadvantaged or underprivileged.                                |
| propaganda              | The publication of resources and ideas designed to encourage a particular and specific response.   |
| militant                | Aggressive and violent behaviour in pursuit of a political cause, favouring extreme or confrontational campaign methods                        |
| suffrage                | The right to vote in political elections.  |
| suffragette             | A campaigner for women's suffrage willing to undertake militant action or to break the law.  |

The Suffragette Movement

- To know the era that the suffragette movement took place
- To know who Emmeline Pankhurst was
- To know who the women's social and political union were
- To know where the suffragette movement began
- To know how the movement affected British politics

Books for hooks