

Year 3 Question It: Lesson 2

Buy or Sell

Background:

The internet is an integral part of life and has many benefits. It is a great way to connect with the whole world. Most people use it to connect with other people, for entertainment, for sharing information and more recently to buy and sell things. The online process of buying and selling things has many advantages and disadvantages. It is quick and convenient with consumers paying using cards or financial services like PayPal. Items bought or sold are usually exchanged through postal or delivery services. Sometimes it can't replace traditional buying and selling though like when you want to try on the outfit before you commit or when you simply don't have the time to wait.
