Hendrefoilan Newsletter

Tuesday 3 March 2026

It is a pleasure to be writing to you once again as headteacher of Hendrefoilan primary. As many of you know, I am currently seconded to the local authority. This experience is giving me a valuable wider perspective on school improvement across Swansea. However, I very much miss being part of the Hendrefoilan school community each day and I look forward to returning.

We warmly congratulate Mrs Wisby on her well-deserved promotion to headship; she will take up her new post at Cilâ Primary on 13 April 2026. I will return to my role of headteacher in September 2026. Until then, Mrs Tidy will serve as acting headteacher, supported by our governing body and local authority officers. Additionally, the appointment process for a new deputy headteacher is currently underway (deputy headteacher advert)

Thank you, as always, for your continued support. Although we are sad to see Mrs Wisby move on, I am excited for the future and for the opportunities it will bring for our pupils. If you have any questions or concerns about this, please contact the school or me.
