Issue No.21

Message from Miss Gibbs

Happy Friday!

New roof

I am so excited to report that at last we are to have a new roof over KS2. We are also having new windows in the KS2 hall, which will have protection over them, stopping the glare of sunlight coming in. The works are due to start week beginning 7 April, the start of the Easter holidays. The contractors are aware of SATs week and so works will be kept to a minimum that week. Otherwise, there may be some noise, but this cannot be avoided. The project is due to be completed by 26 June, weather dependent.

The scaffolding will start to go up on the 22nd of March at the back of the school, and the scaffolding around the whole KS2 building will be up by 31st March. Part of the car park, outside KS1 hall, will be unavailable during this time, so therefore, access to the school office will be via the KS2 path only. Please remember, this is only a temporary measure and for the inconvenience, we are getting watertight roof, thanks to Essex County Council.

Lunches

Reminder - children are not allowed sweets (ie Haribo, brain lickers, toxic waste, sugar covered sweets etc) in their packed lunches. We are also a nut free school, no Nutella (you can buy nut free chocolate spread).

Easter

Sports News - we've had lots events the past couple of weeks. Starting with the girls' football team, they have played 2 games and won both. Their next game is Monday at home against Theydon Bois.

Leverton 3-0 Waltham Holy cross //// Leverton 2-1 St John's Fisher.

Last Friday, we had 64 KS2 children attend cross country. Over 700 children across 20 schools took part. All of our children ran fantastically and tried their hardest. We had some notable finishers with Juke (2nd), Tilly E (2nd), Ivy I (3rd), Sylvie (4th) and the year 4 girls team finishing 3rd overall. Well done all!
