

Knowledge organiser – World trade

What will we be learning?	Key facts
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why people trade with each other • What imports and exports are • How a global supply chain works 	Different places make different things and sell them to each other The parts for products like smartphones travel huge distances to the factories where they are put together Many goods reach us after a long journey on a container ship

Key knowledge
The goods we buy come from all over the world
There are many steps in a global supply chain before the goods get to us
Transporting goods to and from the factory involves huge distances and needs careful planning

Key knowledge
Our food comes from many different places around the world
There can be many different steps along the journey from farm to fork
The food choices we make affect people and nature in many different places

Place names	Geographical terms and processes	Locational terms
Caribbean	agriculture	map key
China	container	scale
Germany	economy	trade route
Japan	environment
Port of Santos	export
South Korea	Fairtrade
Taiwan	import
Netherlands	industrial
Ukraine	manufactured
UK	raw materials
USA	services
Zhengzhou	supply chain transport

Glossary
economy: the wealth and resources of a place supply chain: the steps in the journey involved in making and selling a product trade: exchanging goods or services, usually for money