

We will be writers when we -

- Write a postcard from Beegu
- Write a character description
- Write a narrative based on 'The Queens Handbag'
- Write a woodland poem

We will be sports people when we can learn some functional skills like jumping, hopping and dodging and improving our flexibility when doing yoga.

We will be scientist when we -

- explore and compare the differences between things that are living, dead, and things that have never been alive
- identify that most living things live in habitats to which they are suited and describe how different habitats provide for the basic needs of different kinds of animals and plants, and how they depend on each other
- identify and name a variety of plants and animals in their habitats, including micro-habitats
- Describe how animals obtain their food from plants and other animals, using the idea of a simple food chain, and identify and name different sources of food.

-We will be mathematicians when we-

- count in steps of 2, 3 and 5 forwards and backwards
- recognise place value of 2 digit numbers
- read and write numbers from 0-100, use < and > signs
- read and write numbers to 100 and beyond in numerals and words
- use place value and number facts to solve problems
- addition and subtraction

Ignite

An explosion of learning across the curriculum

We will be musicians when we develop skills of pulse, rhythm, pitch and tempo. We will learn to sing new songs and learn how to play the Glockenspiel through Charanga.

We will be geographers when we can:

_ name, locate and identify characteristics of the four countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom and its surrounding areas.

-use atlases, world maps and globes to identify the UK and its countries

We will be computer experts when we can: practice our coding skills and safely navigate the online environment and search key words effectively.

Let's explore where we live

Big Question : Where am I?

We will be theologians when we know how we should care for others and the world, and why does it matter?

We will be artists and designers when we can

Reproduce the national flowers of the UK in the style of Andy Warhol.

Create a flag exploring weaving.

Sculpt our own Loch Ness Monsters.
