

"Now listen to me if you follow my ways
you will be happy too." Proverbs 8

How we use workforce information

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how we use any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' to individual's where we are processing their personal data, and by having a Data Protection Policy.

This notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school. We, Pocklington Infants are the data controller for the purposes of data protection law. Our school has an appointed Data Protection Officer, whose role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures, and to ensure that the school is compliant with data protection laws the (Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)).

The categories of school workforce information that we process

These include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group)
- contract information (such as start date, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- performance information (such as appraisals and performance reviews)
- medical information (such as medical conditions and doctors information) financial or payroll information (such as bank details, pension information)
- maternity/paternity pay information
- criminal records information (including results of disclosure and barring service (DBS) checks)

This list is not exhaustive, to access a detailed list of categories of information we process please see the school's Information Asset Register by contacting the DPO for a copy at office@pocklington-infants.org.uk

Why we collect and use workforce information

We use workforce data to:

- a) enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is

Our school values: Respect, Compassion, Perseverance and Truth

- deployed
- b) inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
 - c) enable individuals to be paid and ensure the correct calculation of tax, national insurance and pension contributions
 - d) liaise with pension providers
 - e) assist employees with personal development and the development of the schools service
 - f) ensure the safety and wellbeing of our workforce and pupils

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes include:

- the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes;
- processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract and;
- processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;

In addition, the legal basis for processing any special categories information is:

- processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by Union or Member State law or a collective agreement pursuant to Member State law
- the data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes,

Collecting workforce information

We collect personal information from an employee application form and direct from the employee themselves on the start of their employment. We may also obtain information from a previous employer as well as regulatory authorities such as the local authority or HMRC.

Workforce data is essential for the school's / local authority's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection laws, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this and we will tell you what you need to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Our school values: Respect, Compassion, Perseverance and Truth

Storing workforce information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please visit at www.pocklington-infants.org.uk or contact the DPO for a copy at office@pocklington-infants.org.uk

Who we share workforce information with

We routinely share this information with:

- our local authority (where applicable)
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- our payroll provider
- pension schemes
- information may also be published to the school website - this will not include data of a sensitive nature
- HMRC
- DBS
- Diocese of York

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about workforce with the Department for Education (DfE) for the purpose of those data collections, under:

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding, expenditure and the assessment for educational attainment.

We are required to share information about our school employees with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact the School's Data Protection Officer.

Depending on the lawful basis above, you may also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by DfE, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice.

"Now listen to me if you follow my ways
you will be happy too." Proverbs 8

POCKLINGTON CE (VC) INFANT SCHOOL
Happy Children, Loving Learning
Maxwell Road, Pocklington, York YO42 2HE
Tel: 01759 302699
Email: pocklington.infants@eastriding.gov.uk
Headteacher: Dr Lynn Bartram

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the School's Data protection Officer at office@pocklington-infants.org.uk

Last updated

We may need to update this privacy notice periodically so we recommend that you revisit this information from time to time. This version was last updated on 21/6/2021

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact:

Gill Husband, School Business Manager/Data Protection Officer on 01759302699