Aliyah Khan: Hey Aliyah, let me know when you get back from Hajj. I haven't spoken to you since your first day there! xx

Friend: I'm home! I missed you loads! How was your week? I had a brilliant time! What an experience!

Aliyah Khan: Yeah my week was fine thanks - probably not as exciting as yours! Talk me through it!... was Mina as hot as you thought it would be when I spoke to you on your first day? x

Friend: YES! So on that second day... we all travelled to Mina, which isn't too far from Makkah. It was great to be travelling with so many other Muslims and the camp for the night was HUGE!

Aliyah Khan: Wow - sounds brilliant! What happened on Day 3?

Friend: We all went to the plains of Arafat - we had to make sure we got there before midday so it was a bit of a rush - you know what my Dad is like - always making us late! Praying there all day on the hill was great - but HOT!

Aliyah Khan: Yeah I bet that was boiling! And is that all you did that day?

Friend: Yeah lots of praying that day. We then walked to Muzdalifah to camp outside and in the evening we all collected our pebbles ready for the next day back at Mina!

Task 3

This pillar is about looking after other people. Each Muslim gives up a share of his wealth each year to provide for those less fortunate. The word zakat means to purify or cleanse. As a person gives away a share of their wealth they become cleansed from selfishness and greed.

Muslims give a portion of their wages to charity.
Do you know what each of these charities are?
