Oaklands School

"The best for all, the best from all"

Written statement of our behaviour principles – September 2026

Oaklands School provides pupils with the opportunity to learn in a nurturing and happy environment. The child-centred and supportive approach at Oaklands School is created by the excellent and supportive staff, who enable and support pupils to achieve their potential and experience many enriching and positive experiences.

School aims:

To:

- Foster pupils' self-esteem and help them build positive relationships with other people
- Develop self-discipline, self-control and a sense of responsibility
- Promote consistent good behaviour
- Develop pupils' self-respect and encourage them to respect the ideas, attitudes, values and feelings of others
- Show respect for all cultures and in so doing promote positive attitudes towards others
- Help pupils grow into reliable, independent and positive citizens
- Provide a clear and carefully crafted behaviour support programme to enable all pupils and staff to promote positive attitudes
- Demonstrate clearly that bullying and racism in any form will never be tolerated within our school community
- Ensure effective management of teaching and learning with well organised classes and lessons that are stimulating, appropriate and differentiated.

The Ethos at Oaklands School is "The best for all, the best from all"

Our Mission Statement is,

We believe in making a lasting difference, by giving students the tools to meet the challenges of the future.

The Oaklands values that underpin our ethos and mission statement are:

- Developing emotionally healthy minds
- Providing pathways to success
- Supporting pupils to become confident and resilient young adults
