

We will be writers when we –

Poems inspired by The Hobbit
Plan and produce a newspaper report.
Setting description describing a magical place.
Write an informal letter from a character's perspective.

We will be linguists when we –

Describe and design clothes
Explain a trip to the sea side
Can use persuasive language.

We will be historians when we -

Introduce trends in crime and punishment from Roman times to the present day Study specific periods in history and make comparisons

We will be scientists when we -

Understand the changes that humans and other animals go through as they develop into old age.
Can describe life cycles of mammals and plants.

We will be sports people

when we- can bowl and apply fielding techniques in cricket run, jump and coordinate our movements as athletes

We will be designers when we-

Create an artificial home for an animal

We will be musicians when we – compose a simple melody using Charanga Units

'Dancing in the street' and consolidate our learning through 'Reflect, Rewind and Replay' plot the journey of a river, using percussion instruments

We will be geographers when we – describe and understand key aspects of physical geography of rivers and the water cycle use fieldwork to observe, record and present features after a river study

Ignite

An explosion of learning across the curriculum

'Crime doesn't pay'

Spark: Crime Scene Investigation

Visit – Police Museum

Big Question – What is it like to be accused of a crime?

Year - 5
Term – Summer

We will be theologians when we – explore whether it is better to express your religion in arts and architecture or in charity and generosity?

discuss what it means to be a Muslim in Britain today

We will be mathematicians when we- multiply and divide whole numbers and those involving decimals solve problems using numbers to 3 decimal places identify properties of shapes and measure angles convert between different units

We will be artists when we – draw landscapes and paint in the style of famous artists using watercolours design a petit dejeuner

