

YEAR 3 AUTUMN TERM

PLG S

Literacy / History

Friday 18th September 2020

GOAL: To write a Diary about the Last Day in the Little Boy's Stone Age Adventure

Capital letters and full stops

Conjunctions – because, and, but, so, if, yet, while, when, although, instead, or

Use first person – I

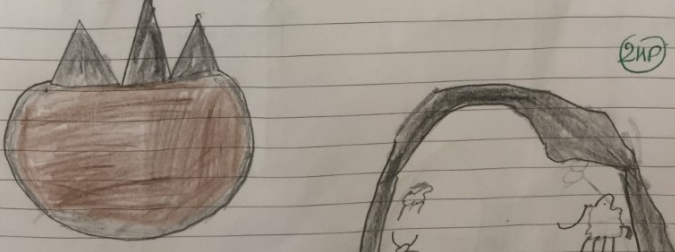

Chronological [time] order

Use time words (prepositions) to start sentences: After some time, Later, Next, Soon, Just then, Finally

10th September 2012

Dear Diary,

What a day! When I woke up this morning I my bright jumper and my traffic biners and what a surprise Om was left of my tent. We walked, walked walked and we saw a creepy as Om got some flint out of her brand new bag. She made some fire we walked over it. I had look at these cool cave paintings. Om also told us someone lived here. We called the animals. Mammals, horses and deer. Suddenly we saw a bear shadow. Then it came out of the dark and attacked us. I shouted out. I felt I woke up and told my parents but they didn't believe me.

PLG S

Literacy

Thursday 8th October 2020

GOAL: How to Use Similes in a Poem

Use words "like" or "as" to compare things

Adjectives and expanded noun phrases (huge, dark eyes surrounded by thick, straggly fur)

As strong as a dinosaur.
As brown as a tree trunk.
As noisy as a scream.
As fearless as a dragon.
As big as a dephant.
As fluffy as a dog.
As slow as a old man.
As brave as a big man.
What am I?

PLG S

Literacy / History

Monday 12th October 2020

GOAL: Information about Skara Brae – Caption for Photos

Be archaeologists and recognise items in Skara Brae

Understand how Stone Age people lived in Skara Brae

Adjectives and expanded noun phrases (mounds of soft grass between stones)

Conjunctions (because, and, or, so, when, if)

Prepositions (Beneath the stones, On the far left, All over the site, Between the houses)

Inside the house

In the center of the house, there can sometimes be a hot, boiling hearth. If the wind gets through the door, they get a big, giant rock and put it into the massive hole in the door. There's a big bed in the corner of the giant stone house and Next there's a beautiful dresser with good, gorgeous and glistening jewelry, necklaces and more.

Outside the house

Outside, there is a small island and the biggest open you have ever seen! Guess what? They could stand on their own roof it's so strong! It was a fact you see there's 8 houses but ones a real mystery because 7 are joined and ones not!

The village

It's a pretty big place for a village (it's not wonderful but a bit dull). It took a lot of energy you should be really respecting the most important thing every one should no so listen it can sound's scary time and don't take a part of the house.

Whole Class Feedback Points

Captions for Photos of Skara Brae [14/10/20]

Well done on using sub-headings and pictures to split the information into paragraphs. Full of interesting information about Skara Brae in the Orkneys.

1) Try starting sentences with place prepositions – In the middle, On the left,

2) Try starting sentences with adverbs – Amazingly, Incredibly, Surprisingly

3) Add adjectives to describe some nouns – cold stones, soft straw, dark tunnels

PLG S

Literacy / History

Thursday 1st October 2020

GOAL: Non Fiction Recount of Stone Age Morning

Capital letters and full stops

Conjunctions – and, because, so, if, or, yet, although, after, when, but, that

Description with expanded noun phrases (cosy shelter under a large shady tree)

Start sentences in interesting ways: Plus, In addition, Also, As well as that, Later, Soon, After that, Next,

Yesterday was our stone age morning. It was a bright day also it was brilliant I loved it. Suddenly we met Om. She taught us to be a stone age humans. We made Tuff hats, necklaces and mud on our faces and messy messy hair. Then we made

I made a spear I had to get a piece of pointy stick before that we had to run a stick around the field then we had to get some string. Then we went to play. It was so fun first we had to get our second heap forward the third was much get up and share the food!

The deer was amazing but first we had to come in. It suddenly we needed to get fire wood!

In addition Om thought that we were getting hungry there was bread I loved that brilliant food it tasted fresh it was really tasty it was also gorgeous. I didn't like most things!

