

Ignite

An explosion of learning across the curriculum

Excellence without compromise

Spark- Trip to MoSi
Title: Did electricity change the world?

Year - 4
 Term - Spring

We will be writers when we –

We write a narrative based on the Lion the Witch & the wardrobe

Write a poem based on the Windmill Farmer

Write a persuasive holiday brochure for Campania.

Poetry – ‘Things we can say to places in the UK’

We will be linguists when we

Learn family member names

Learn face parts

Learn body parts

We will be computer scientist when we;

Learn to use spreadsheets including formatting cells and creating graphs.

Learn to use word processing programs to create a range of documents

Begin to use the language of logo.

We will be historians when we-

Look at how land use has changed over time.

We will be scientist when we –

Study Electricity

- Learn about making electrical circuits including using switches
- Identify common conductors and insulators, and associate metals with being good conductors.

Human Digestion

- Learn about the human digestive system.
- Compare teeth in animals and humans.

We will be sports people when we-

Practice multi-sport skills such as passing, finding space, marking an opponent.

Learning to swim

We will be mathematicians when we-

Learn the formal methods of multiplication and division.

When we learn about fractions and decimals.

We will be musicians when we –

Learn the ukulele

We will be geographers when we –

Learn about the regions and counties of the UK.

Learn about the physical and human characteristics of Greater Manchester area compared to Campania, Italy.

When we learn about early settlements and how they have changed.

We will be theologians when we will

Why is Jesus an inspiration to some people?

We will be artists and designers when we

Study Elaine O’Neil and create a landscape piece.

Create still life paintings based on Giorgio Morandi

Create our passport wallet using different stitches and fabric.

