Fox Class Weekly Newsletter

Friday 2nd December 2022

Dear Families,

I hope you are all having a good week. It's beginning to feel a lot like Christmas in school.

We have been busy practising for our 'Carols by Candlelight' concert. Everyday the children are getting better at learning the words for the carols. Some children have also been given readings to read out during the concert. I hope you were able to book your tickets for next week as it will be amazing!

In English, we have written diary entries based on our class story book 'Stone Age Boy'. The children have finished the week editing their work to improve their writing.

In maths we are learning to subtract two numbers across the tens and hundreds, using the written column method.

In science, we have started a two week investigation to find out if plants need light to grow. We have two plants. Plant A we put on the windowsill with plenty of light and plant B we put in a dark cupboard with no light. We will be observing and recording any changes to each plant.

KS2 Christmas Design Competition

A letter went home yesterday, for children to design the front cover of our KS2 'Carols by Candlelight' programme. The children can draw, paint or create any picture that represents one of the songs we are singing.

- Bells Ring Out
- Go Tell it on the Mountain
- All Over the Hills
- Calypso Carol
- Run Rudolph Run
- Feliz Navidad
- We Wish You a Merry Christmas

Reminders

- Key stage two Christmas singing concert 8th & 9th December
- Christmas jumper day 9th December
- Christmas dinner 14th December

- Christmas themed spoons competition, decorated spoons to be returned by 8th December

Please come and speak to us if you have any questions or queries.
