Useful websites to research subjects and careers.

- Have a look at CareerPilot for career ideas related to subjects, job sectors and much more!
- The National Careers Service site helps you to explore careers, carry out a skills health check or find a course.
- See UCAS or Which? University for university information.
- Uni4me is a new site set up during the pandemic by 50 UK based higher education establishments to allow everyone to find out more about university and a whole host of other things
- Prospects is a good site to search for job ideas related to degree subjects, labour market information and more.

CAREER FOCUSED LEARNING

- Every T-level is taught through a mix of classroom and workplace-based learning. Students spend 80% of their time at school or college and 20% of their time developing the skills needed for the workplace on a 45-day industry placement.
