

Trustee Declarations of Interests

Trustees are required to declare any interests which they have that could interact with school, as these may cause actual or perceived conflicts of interest. A register is maintained and updated at every meeting.

Presently there are no interests declared that cause actual or perceived conflicts of interest.