Thank You Friends

A HUGE THANK YOU to our incredible Friends and Family volunteers who created an amazing Christmas Fair this week for the children. All proceeds go to support the children at Belvoirdale.

Join Us For a Christmas Treat

Please join us on Thursday 11th December in the playground from 6pm for a wonderful opportunity to sing with, and listen to, Ibstock Brass band as they join us for a Christmas carol concert. We will provide a simple song sheet of traditional carols and along with the Belvoirdale Christmas choir, we can all have a sing and create a memorable Belvoirdale Christmas memory! There will be mulled wine and treats along with lots of Christmas cheer! All children must be accompanied by an adult. Mr Dax

Sport Award

The Barclays Equal Access School Award for football is given to a school that can demonstrate equality in the amount of time, teaching and promotion of football to both boys and girls. Thank you to Mr. Taylor for ensuring that everyone is welcome and equal at Belvoirdale.

Thank You

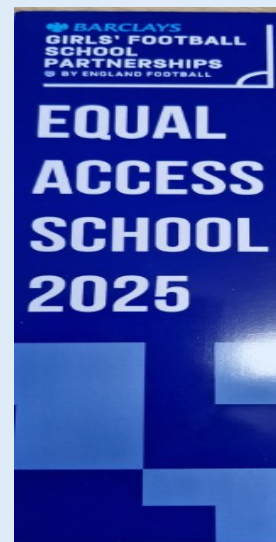

Home made decorations are needed for the Christmas tree. Mr Dax has kept decorations from the last eight years, carefully putting them away in the Belvoirdale loft, but the new tree needs new decorations! Thank you to TH HEATH Contracts for the kind donation of the Belvoirdale Christmas Tree.

It is Bare!

Design and decorate a unique Christmas decoration to hang on our school Christmas tree. Please deliver them to your classroom or the school office.

Grateful thanks to Heath Contracts for the donation of the Christmas Tree

Meet the Author

Coalville Library SAT 13th Dec 10-11am

Our own resident author and all round talented teacher Mr Dickson, will be making a guest appearance at Coalville Library on Saturday 13th December and signing his best selling book: Errol and Edwina. Pop along to the library and grab yourself a copy of this fabulous story or maybe solve your Christmas present dilemma by buying one for a friend!
