Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Coombeshead Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- contacting the Exams Officer to raise the concern or complaint, this can be made in person, by telephone or in writing. This will then be submitted to the Head of Centre

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- the Headteacher

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- complete and return a complaints form, which can be found in the Complaints policy on the ESW website

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 4 working weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- complete and return an appeals form to the Clerk to the Trust Board

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- the Chair of Governors

It will be the responsibility of to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
