Many years ago, in the fifth century AD, a quiet and peaceful kingdom (Denmark) was ruled by the wise and kind king Hrothgar. To celebrate his kingdom's prosperity, he had a magnificent mead hall built, called Heorot.

A few months later, they build the mead hall. When they were in the mead hall and they had peace, a monster of the night named Grendel had attacked the warriors tried to kill him but Grendel ate all of them. Grendel did not give up he killed 30 people every night. This dreadful thing had been cause 12 years of fighting. Hrothgar told his warriors to go and get Beowulf the strongest prince which is as strong as Grendel.

When Beowulf heard that him and his 14 warriors were sailing on a long ship. The waves were very strong but he even though the waves were strong he made it. He was proud that he got there and because he really wanted to see Hrothgar.

Beowulf and his 14 warriors went sprinting to the gates of the mead hall. Hrothgar's warriors thought that Beowulf was Grendel and they were scared and confused. Beowulf said, "Hi I'm Beowulf king Hrothgar told me to come here." "Come in" said one of the warriors.

Hrothgar was thinking about Beowulf and Beowulf opened the door of the Heorot. "Welcome Beowulf" said King Hrothgar proudly. "Let's have a banquet." And they did.

They had lots of good like pig, vegetables and red wine. They were so happy to have a banquet with Beowulf. The queen said, "Welcome Beowulf we are proud that you came here. hear."

The next day, Grendel appeared, he shoved the door in and the door went into pieces. The warriors wanted Grendel to stop attacking and Beowulf was the only person to fight with his bare hand. They had a really big fight. But happily Beowulf won by pulling Grendel's arm off.

Some of Beowulf's warriors tried to fight with Grendel but one of them did not survive. The blood thirsty monster started to eat one of Beowulf's warriors. First he started from the legs to the top. Few minutes later Grendel finished eating the man and he walked away.

Sadly, after eating one of Grendel's warriors Grendel went placing back to his home crying like a baby. His house was under water. Beowulf was really happy that he ripped Grendel's arm off.

Grendel's arm was attached to the roof so that they could look at it every time they got to the mead for a banquet or dance and drink and to know that Grendel is dead.

A few days later, they had a big banquet to celebrate Grendel's death and that Beowulf is alive. They had lots of people with and they had lots of food. They even looked at Grendel's arm and how it is on the Heorot door or even above the door.
