How healthy is this subject at Kings Road?
Fairly healthy (Needs additional support and CPD to be excellent)
How do you know?
Children have a positive attitude to PE and the participation in extracurricular sporting activities, however due to having a sports coach staff teaching ability varies.
What are the strengths? (How do you know?)
Opportunities for participation in different sports. Our commitment to sport. Niall
What are the areas for development?
Participation – while numbers are high community external commitments are placed before sports. High quality teaching. Teacher participation in pre/ after school clubs
How well is this subject taught at Kings Road?
Fantastically through specialist sports coach. Adequately by staff but further observation needed.
How well is this subject learnt at Kings Road?
From pupil voice questionnaires the subject is taught well. However there is now an end of term module for each year group which will provide better data.
