

SLOW DOWN 4 BOBBY

In the September sun, they gleam, young and bright,
Embarking on a journey, their hearts taking flight.

Back to school, books in hand, they tread,
AS Bobby's legacy whispers softly in their stead.

In the slow-down for Bobby, let us remember and reflect,
The precious lives on the road, we must protect.

Through watchful eyes and cautious ways,
We ensure that all children see brighter days.

So, as they return to the classroom's glow,
In Bobby's name, let safety always flow.

May our roads be kind, our hearts aware,
AS we cherish the moments we get to share.

With care in our hearts and a pledge to abide,
We'll keep Bobby's spirit forever by our side.

In the classroom's echo, on the journey ahead,
We'll remember our promise, in his name, we'll spread.
