Newham has been my home for over 17 years and I have been a School Governor in the Borough since 2015. I am a qualified accountant and auditor with 19 years working in professional practice, and nearly 5 years working with a global insurance company. 12 of these years have been specifically working with local councils and schools all around London and the South East. My current role includes providing assurance on a wide variety of areas in the organisation including finance, governance, risk management and regulatory processes. I bring my expertise, as well as experience of a wide variety of areas of good practice, to the Governing Board of CPD Schools Federation.
